

NHS Workforce Disability Equality Standard

What is the Workforce Disability Equality Standard (WDES)?

- Ten evidence-based metrics which take effect from 1 April 2019 based on 2018/19 financial year data.
- Mandated in the NHS Standard Contract.
- Restricted to NHS Trusts and Foundation Trusts in the first two years of implementation.
- Enables NHS organisations to compare experiences of Disabled/non-disabled staff.
- NHS organisations to publish results and develop action plans.

Key drivers for the development of the WDES

- UK Government pledge to increase the number of disabled people in employment
- The NHS Constitution
- The ‘social model of disability’
- The Equality Act 2010
- ‘Nothing about us without us’

The journey so far

2016	NHS Equality & Diversity Council (EDC) commission research into disability equality in the NHS, and recommend that the WDES be mandated via the NHS Standard Contract.
2017	Piloting of the draft WDES Metrics. Online survey sent to Disabled staff networks and Disabled union member networks.
2018	Feedback gathered on the draft WDES metrics via regional engagement events and an online survey. Metrics finalised and approved by the EDC/NHS England. Approved as a data collection by the Data Co-ordination Board (DCB).

Why is the Workforce Disability Equality Standard needed nationally ?:

- Significant under reporting of the numbers of staff who declare themselves to be disabled.
- 15% difference between ESR and Staff Survey declaration rates
- Lack of representation of Disabled staff at senior levels.
- Disabled staff consistently report:
 - higher levels of bullying and harassment
 - less satisfaction with appraisals and career development opportunities.

What positive outcomes will the WDES bring to NHS organisations?

Building on progress

Organisations will be able to use the data to undertake year on year comparisons, highlighting areas of improvement and areas where further work is needed.

Positive outcomes - improved data

- More transparency, more accurate data reporting and analysis.
- Drive up the declaration rate of Disabled staff.
- The collection and reporting of data will enable organisations to better understand the experiences of their Disabled staff.

- It will support the development of good practice.
 - Improve recruitment processes, and increase the number of Disabled staff recruited.
 - It will support positive change for existing employees and enable a more inclusive environment for Disabled people working in the NHS.
 - Raising awareness of disability will support improvements in patient care.

Positive outcomes – better staff experience

- The WDES will champion a more open culture, reduce bullying and improve staff wellbeing.
- Drive forward change in an organisation to improve the employment and retention of Disabled people.

Key Actions for the Trust
