There are a range of services available locally to support children, young people and families. Further information on these services is available below:

Local support organisations and services

SENDIASS: (Special Education Needs and Disability Information, Advice and Support Service) is an independent part of the local authority which is there to support parents and are very knowledgeable about the Education processes (in term-time): www.bit.ly/sendias

Pinpoint: www.bit.ly/pinpointcambs

There is a useful newsletter for the SCIP (Special Needs Community Information Point) database; to be added to the mailing list please contact Joan Adamson, SCIP Co-ordinator by email on: joan.adamson@cambridgeshire.gov.uk. More information about can be found here: www.bit.ly/scipcamb

Your child may well be eligible for Disability Living Allowance, and this is something you could look into to support the extra expenses with having a child with a developmental difference: www.bit.ly/dlchildren

Information about organisations that can support you to complete the application forms can be found here: www.bit.ly/autism-services

Many families find the social care children's disabilities team a useful means of support and their website (you can refer yourself) can be found here: www.bit.ly/disabilitysocialcare-0-25

Early Help Hub: Sometimes families need a bit of extra support. You might be worried about your child's behaviour or development. Or you and your family might experience some changes or difficulties that you can't manage by yourself. Whatever you are worried about, Early Help can support you and your family so that small problems do not become big problems: www.bit.ly/earlyhelphub

OT resources

A talk for families by the occupational therapists about sensory issues can be accessed here (with the option to contact them through the website for further queries): www.bit.ly/nhscambst-sensorylearning

The Occupational Therapists have a talk about motor coordination which can be found here: www.bit.ly/nhscambst-motorlearning
