What happens next?

One of our complaints team will contact you about your complaint.

They will give you information about someone who can help you.

You will receive a letter explaining what happened and what we will do to make things better.

If you are still unhappy with our letter, please let us know so that we can try to find a way to sort it out.

How PALS can help you?

If you are unhappy with your care, please tell a member of staff. They will do their best to help you.

If you prefer, you can contact the PALS (Patient Advice and Liaison Service) and they will talk to staff on your behalf to try to sort things out.
